

PROCUP – PROFESSIONALS CHOICE

AEROSOL SPRAY PAINT CANS TO PAINT GOLF COURSE PUTTING GREEN HOLES WHITE.

PROCUP aerosol cans are used to efficiently spray paint freshly cut golf course putting hole cups bright white. PROCUP cans fits on a specially designed metal bracket for ease of use and for even spray around the putting hole. PROCUP has low VOC's Volatile Organic Compounds, the highest percent solids and extremely bright pigments. It will not harm, kill or brown any type of natural grass. PROCUP sprays a crisp spray pattern and cans will empty completely and will not to clog.

Packaged as twelve 12 ounces by weight cans per case with a divider between.

- PROCUP contains High solids for one pass coverage. Contains Extra bright pigments for enhanced visibility of the putting hole.
- Ease of use, speeds up play, increases the rounds per day and gives the golf course a upgraded professional look.
- Fits in a metal bracket provided to easily install cans upside over the putting hole for a even 360 degree spray pattern.
- Used by PGA, PGA of America, USGA.
- Used by superintendents at several prestigious golf courses, international golf associations and international golf tours.
- Environmentally friendly, safe for all variety of grass and surfaces.
- Will not kill, damage or kill any variety of natural grass. Safe for the applicator and the environment.
- Extremely Durable, Low VOC'S, High Solids. One can will do 80 holes.